

Hebron Lutheran Church

MADISON, VIRGINIA

Madison, Virginia

The Hebron Lutheran Church in Madison houses the oldest Lutheran Congregation in Virginia and the South, dating from before 1726. The original building was constructed in 1740 and is the oldest Lutheran Church built, still used and owned by Lutherans in the United States.

POST CARD

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Another historic scene from the area served by The Potomac Edison System.